Atlas

Atlas Corner Recliner brings comfort and elegance together with its modern design and motorized reclining seats. Both the right and left end seats feature a motorized reclining mechanism for personalized comfort. The middle module includes a music system, and the armrest section has a flip-up lid tray. The set is built from separate modules, so seating modules can be added or removed on request. With its wide seating area and ergonomic design, it is engineered to be the most comfortable corner of your modern living space.

The Atlas Triple is a modern recliner sofa that offers long-lasting comfort with its stylish design and motorized reclining mechanisms. Its ergonomic three-seater structure and high-quality foam create the most comfortable corner in your home. Equipped with a total of five motor-controlled mechanisms, it allows for effortless opening and closing in every mode.
